CARL MCKINLEY STOREY, PRESIDENT OF THE ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

GREETINGS TO MARYVILLE COLLEGE ALUMNI EVERYWHERE:

As President of the Alumni Association this year I have endeavored to work with the College and different alumni groups to promote a program that would arouse the interest of all Alumni in Maryville College. The response, in the form of personal letters, from scores of Alumni has been most gratifying. To serve as President of the Alumni Association makes one very much aware of the many needs of the College. Our church colleges are very much in danger of losing ground unless Alumni, businessmen, and friends across the nation come to their rescue financially. The State universities, with our tax money, are offering a more attractive program in many ways. I am happy to say that none of them offers more in a healthy environment and spiritual way than does Maryville College.

The response to the A DAY programs mailed out in January has been very gratifying. A few dollars are still trickling in, but we need over $1,000 yet to pay in full for the band uniforms. Keep those dollars coming in. Many have not mailed in their alumni dues, of $2.00, for this year. Please do this before the end of May.

It is certainly encouraging to those of us here in Maryville to watch the building of the new Samuel Tyndale Wilson Chapel progress. It would be a most appropriate time for those of you who have not yet paid up your chapel pledge to do so, and for those of you who have not pledged—why not act now and send a check or a pledge along to help complete this magnificent structure.

So much for arousing your interest concerning the financial needs of the College. Now let's all plan to attend the alumni banquet and the commencement program. The Ten, Twenty, Twenty-Five, and Fifty Year Classes are planning reunions. Mrs. John (America Moore) Crawford is in charge of the Twenty-Five Year reunion. Members of the Twenty-Five and Fifty Year Classes will take part in the program at the alumni banquet. Don't forget to send in your change of address and any news of Alumni to the Alumni Office. I am looking forward to seeing many of you during Commencement.

Thanks to Alumni everywhere for the personal notes sent along with dues, band uniform program checks and one-dollar bills. Your financial support to these programs and your moral support have made it a pleasure to serve this year as your President. Thanks also to the Alumni Executive Committee and other alumni committees who have labored so faithfully during the past year.

Now more power to our new President, whomever you elect for the coming year.

Sincerely,

1. Our Alumni Family grows steadily in size. The total number of persons who have graduated from Maryville College is now 4,423, of whom more than 3,800 are living. The earlier classes were small. The larger classes have been those of the two decades since I returned to Maryville.

The class with which I graduated had only twenty-seven members, although the very next year that number jumped to forty-two, and seven years later passed the fifty mark. In 1929 it passed the one hundred mark and since 1930, including the war years, has averaged 122. It was rather startling to me to discover recently that up to this date I have had the personal privilege of acting for the College in awarding its diploma to seventy per cent of all Maryville graduates, and to a still larger proportion of you who receive this letter. This privilege and the life friendships which it represents I prize more than I can put into words.

A considerable number of our alumni family live within fifty miles of the campus, but by far the larger proportion live in other parts of America and the world and most contacts must be by correspondence. That is one reason for the alumni issue of the Maryville College Bulletin.

2. With Maryville Alumni Abroad. In late December and in January I made a trip to Lucknow, India, to attend a meeting of the Central Committee of the World Council of Churches. On the way out through Lebanon I saw Lois Wilson, '16, daughter of former President Samuel Tyndale Wilson. She is Principal of the Presbyterian Mission School at Nabatiyeh. In India, I saw Leroy Dillener, '44, and Anna Stevens, '49, at Kolhapur; Peggy Ann Case, '45, at Miraj; and Ann Leeder, '52, at Allahabad. At Ferozepore, India, we had a little Maryville College reunion of six: Dr. Dorothy Ferris, '28, who is head of the Frances Newton Hospital there, Elsie Gleason, '28, of Mainpuri, Don Rugh, '38, and his wife Joy Pinneo Rugh, '39, of Meerut, Bill Starr, '51, of Mussoorie, and myself. Dorothy Ferris had invited all alumni who could come to a special dedication of operating room equipment, including a modern shadowless light provided through the Fred Hope Fund at Maryville College. All whom I have named are missionaries to India. There are at least two others in India whom I did not see: Mrs. C. W. Perry (Isabelle Jay '40) whose husband is with the Standard Vacuum Oil Co., at Madras; and Mrs. M. S. Kamble (Margaret Duke '24) at Usuri-Islampur. In Lebanon, I just missed Helen Cassile, '45, who is now associated with Lois Wilson.

3. Local alumni and community interest has been active during this college year, and I wish to express appreciation for a number of helpful things, connected with our football program, accomplished or in process. A banquet, served at the College, to the football squad, was organized and paid for by alumni and other friends in the community. A scoreboard was erected on the football field with funds donated. A benefit post-season football game was promoted (under unprecedented snow storm conditions) and the net receipts were added to the fund of $1,000 set up by the College to purchase Scottish Kilt uniforms for the College band; because of the bad weather the game receipts did not bring the fund up to the $3,500 needed, but local alumni and friends plan to complete the project when possible. They also planned the ceremony in which, at the benefit game, we named the field for Coach L. S. Honaker, in recognition of his long and outstanding service at Maryville. Of this you at a distance know from the program which was mailed to alumni some time ago.

4. The New Chapel is now well under way. A contract was let in December to Johnson and Willard, General Contractors, Knoxville. On January 5, construction began. It is still in the "foundation" stage, but some 250 tons of concrete, reinforced with steel, have been set, and before these words are read, a great deal more concrete, steel, and brick will be in place. We cannot expect the building to be ready for use before Christmas, but are hoping to move in soon after that. As described by the article in this magazine last October, the building is a large one, with a completeness of facilities not often found on a college campus. We believe it will be quite a wonderful building, a worthy companion of the Fine Arts Center. The total cost of building and necessary furnishings (without an organ) will exceed $550,000. The amount so far raised toward this total is approximately $405,000 (including approximately $18,000 in pledges not yet paid). This is a good proportion of the whole, but there is a big job ahead to complete this great and vital addition to the present and future service of the College.

5. The 1953 Commencement scheduled for May 20, is rapidly approaching. The program will be found elsewhere in these pages. As Alumni President Carl Storey says in his letter, it will be a pleasure to see all who can come.

Sincerely yours,

Ralph Waldo Lloyd

1953 COMMENCEMENT

The detailed calendar of Commencement Week events is given on the inside front cover of this Bulletin. Tickets are necessary only for the Alumni Dinner and the play. Dinner tickets may be secured through the Alumni Office or at the Registration Table on the campus that day. Play tickets may be secured through the Alumni Office or the drama department (Miss Kathleen Craven). The committees of the reunion classes will be glad to see about reservations for any who write them.

Alumni Day, you will note, is Saturday, May 16. The annual dinner and business meeting will be in the Dining Hall at seven o'clock. Carl M. Storey, '31, President of the Association, will preside. At nine o'clock the band will give a concert in the Fine Arts Outdoor Theater.

The Baccalaureate sermon on Sunday morning, in accordance with the tradition of many years, will be preached by the President of the College.

We have heard from all six living members of the Fifty-Year Class, 1903, all but one expressing the expectation of being here. The five who hope to come are Thomas G. Brown and Horace H. McCaslin, of Orlando, Florida; Dennis W. Crawford, of Knoxville; Hugh R. Crawford, of Maryville; and Robert O. Franklin, of St. Augustine, Florida. Mrs. J. M. Dorton (Mabel Franklin), of Hillsboro, Tennessee, writes that she cannot make the trip.

Mrs. Roy Blackburn (Alice Stinecipher), Cherry Drive, and Mrs. John Crawford, Jr. (America Moore), Duncan Drive, Maryville, are working on the Class of 1928 reunion.

The Classes of 1943 and 1948 are also working on reunions. Arthur S. Bushing, 803 Court Street, Maryville, and Dorothy H. Vawter, Maryville College, are the respective chairmen.

Other classes are working on reunions in a less organized way. Mrs. Robert C. Cross (Helen Silsby) is writing to members of the Class of 1913 and she and her husband hope that many classmates will be able to attend. Several members of the Twenty-Year Class, 1933, have indicated that they plan to be here. Although the Class of 1918 is not planning a special reunion, Miss Mary Miles, Maryville College, will serve as local chairman and will be glad to hear from any who plan to come.

HUNT FOUNDATION SCHOLARSHIP

It was announced in January through Mr. R. M. Ferry, Manager of Tennessee Operations for Aluminum Company of America, that Maryville College and Alcoa High School have received a $500.00 scholarship fund from the Hunt Foundation of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania. The scholarship will be awarded before the fall semester of 1953 to a graduate of Alcoa High School on the basis of integrity of character, ability to learn new things, general personal efficiency, personality as expressed by manners and cooperativeness, as well as scholastic standing.

In announcing the scholarship award Mr. Ferry said, "The trustees of the Hunt Foundation feel that some appreciation should be shown to the communities of our Alcoa plants and to those connected with these plants. The trustees also feel that this appreciation should be shown in an educational manner in order to provide young, deserving students with the opportunity of possessing a high level of education.

"It was decided that the first bequest to the Alcoa community would be in the form of a scholarship for an Alcoa High School graduate to attend Maryville College, beginning with the fall term of 1953. The particular curriculum to be taken at Maryville College will be decided upon entirely by the student himself."

Selections of the student to receive the award will be made by the Manager of Alcoa's Tennessee Operations, the President of Maryville College and the Superintendent of Alcoa City Schools.

In accepting the award for the College, Dr. Lloyd expressed his appreciation and added, "I can think of no better way to help our community than to make it possible for deserving young people to receive training which will prepare them for the responsibilities of citizenship."

On receipt of the announcement, Alcoa Schools Superintendent V. F. Goddard, '13, said, "This scholarship will be a worthy incentive to the students in Alcoa High School in achieving the best values in their school education. The faculty and students appreciate this contribution by the Hunt Foundation to the Alcoa High School."

The Hunt Foundation was established in 1951, by Roy A. Hunt, Chairman of the Executive Committee for Alcoa and President of the Company from 1928 until 1951. Trustees of the Foundation are members of the Hunt family. Income from the Foundation is distributed exclusively for religious, educational and charitable purposes as determined by the trustees.

MAY DAY

The May Day festival will be held on Friday afternoon, May 1, at two-thirty, in the Amphitheatre in the College Woods. The theme this year is "The Grasshopper and the Ants," using the Walt Disney version of the old fable.

The Student Council is to hold the election for May Queen and the class attendants on March 26.

On Friday evening Barbara Scott and Bill Robinson will give a recital in the Fine Arts Music Hall. Barbara is a piano major and Bill Robinson, who graduated last year, is this year taking additional work in voice.

Saturday evening is the Spring Dance, the one formal dance of the year. It is the turn of Bainonian and Athenian Societies to decorate the Alumni Gym and to be in general charge.

HONAKER FIELD

The new football field, completed in 1950, was named Honaker Field last fall by the Directors.

Coach Lombe Scott Honaker has been Athletic Director and head football, basketball, and baseball coach at Maryville College since 1921, and some of the alumni who had played under him in these various sports made the original suggestion that the field be named for him.

It was formally dedicated in ceremonies before the benefit game on November 26. Mrs. Honaker and their two sons, Scott, '41, and Ross, '49, were with Coach; representatives of the Directors, the Faculty, the Student Body, and the Alumni took part; and many former athletes were present.

BENEFIT FOOTBALL GAME

Early in the fall a group of former Maryville athletes now living in and around Maryville, and a number of other alumni and friends in the community indicated their desire to do something to help secure a scoreboard for the football field and uniforms for the band. After much discussion this crystallized into a benefit football game between Maryville College and Tennessee Wesleyan College, scheduled for Friday evening, November 21.

It was raining Friday morning but the weatherman predicted clearing skies by noon. However, about the middle of the morning the rain changed to snow and when it became apparent that it was not going to "clear by noon" the game was postponed to Saturday night. When the snow got to be about ten inches deep, the game was postponed until the next Wednesday afternoon. But it still kept on snowing until by Saturday morning all records for a twenty-four hour snow in Maryville had been broken, and the snow was eighteen inches deep. It was an exceedingly wet snow which, coming so precipitantly, did terrific damage to trees and shrubs and roofs. All Friday afternoon one could hear trees breaking; it was particularly hard on the old campus cedars.

Because it was necessary to play the game in the afternoon, not so many townspeople could attend, but it was a good game. (Maryville won 20-12). In the ceremonies before the game, Harold Bird, '29, representing the former athletes, presented an electric scoreboard, which was used for the first time that day. Jack Proffitt, ex '41, presented a certificate representing the money so far collected by the sponsors for band uniforms.

Miss Dorothy Horne, Associate Professor of Music, was awarded the Ph.D degree from the Eastman School of Music of the University of Rochester on January 30, 1953.

On the same date at the same institution, Miss Dorothy Vawter, '48, Instructor in Music, was awarded the Master's degree.

Jack Kempton Kemp, of Vidalia, Georgia, was appointed Instructor in Drama and Speech beginning with the second semester. Mr. Kemp was graduated from the Wesleyan Conservatory and School of Fine Arts, Macon, Georgia, with the Bachelor of Fine Arts degree. He is married and has two children.

Miss Ruth Grierson resigned her position as head librarian effective January 31, 1953, to accept a position as a catalog librarian at Vassar College. She had been at Maryville College since 1940 and had been head librarian since Mr. Ellis' retirement in 1943. Miss Josephine Dunlap, catalog librarian, is serving as acting head librarian until Miss Grierson's successor is appointed.

Mrs. Chester F. Leonard (Josephine Wicks, ex '20) is working in the Library this semester to help out in the present staff shortage. She has been living in Maryville since her husband's death.

During the Christmas vacation the faculty, like the students, scattered far and wide. The one who traveled farthest was Miss Eleanor Tom, assistant in the library, who visited her family in Hawaii for the first time in six years.

In recognition of the outstanding work done by the local chapter of the Red Cross under the leadership of Dean F. D. McClelland during 1951 and 1952, the national officers of the American Red Cross have named Dr. McClelland to the 1953 Resolutions Committee for the convention in June. Only twenty chapter leaders in the entire United States are so honored.

Miss Katherine Crews, Instructor in Music, is this year's Orchestra Chairman of the East Tennessee School Band and Orchestra Association, and under her leadership a string clinic for junior and senior high school students of East Tennessee was held in Knoxville on February 20 and 21. Miss Mildred Butcher, from 1924 to 1936 on the Maryville College music faculty and now teaching in the Knoxville schools, was on the clinic committee.

At the annual meeting of the Tennessee Philological Association in February, Miss Kathryn Martin, Assistant Professor of Spanish and French, read a paper on "The Spanish Gypsy as Revealed through Garcia Lorca's Poetry."

Mrs. Rollin Marquis (Carmen Park, '19), former Director of the Student Center and now Hostess at Tapoco Lodge, took a month's Caribbean cruise this winter. She is visiting her son in New York and her parents in Nashville before going back to the Lodge in April, when the tourist season begins.

Miss Thelma Nelson, Instructor in Music from 1947 to 1951, after a year at McCormick Theological Seminary, is now Director of Christian Education at the Grace Evangelical United Brethren Church, Lafayette, Indiana.

Mrs. J. Moehlig (Eleanor Crawford), who taught piano from 1921 to 1928, lives at 10403 St. Clair Avenue, Cleveland, Ohio.

GENERAL ASSEMBLY BREAKFAST

The price will be $1.50, and reservation must be made. Posters on which to sign will be hung at convenient spots in the General Assembly meeting place; or you may make your reservations through Rev. James P. Martin, '47, Pastor of the Riverside Presbyterian Church in Minneapolis. All alumni, parents of student, Directors of the College, and friends of the College are cordially invited to attend.

SUGGESTION FOR A GIFT

Do you have an academic or pulpit gown which is not being used? Why not give it to the College? Each Commencement there are four or five who participate in the Exercises for whom caps, gowns, and hoods must be furnished. And each Sunday evening at Vespers the minister wears a gown (which may be either pulpit or academic). Many times the visiting minister has no gown or finds it most inconvenient to bring it and he wears a borrowed one. The extra ones the College owns are very worn; robes and mortar boards in good condition would be a most helpful gift.

CAMPUS ACTIVITIES

Since Christmas the campus activities have seemed to be many and varied, and yet as spring and Commencement approach everyone grows busier and busier. The second semester started off with the Fred Hope Fund Drive, then the February Meetings, basketball and wrestling, Experimental Theater, the three-act play "Goodbye, My Fancy," frosh talent show, skit night, band concert, and all the society and club programs; coming events include the Easter services, "The Mikado" on April 24 and 25, the Artists Series concert of Luigi Sylva, cellist, (whose concert scheduled for January was postponed because of his illness) on April 27, May Day and the spring formal, the choir tour, baseball and tennis, style show, orchestra concert, senior recitals, the senior breakfast and other Commencement events. And of course there are such things as term papers, freshmen research themes, senior comprehensives, tests and reports.

Recent campus visitors from a distance include Dr. C. Herbert Rice, former president of Forman Christian College, Pakistan; Mrs. Wadia Makdissi, of Lebanon; Donald Grant, British lecturer on international affairs, who has been here on three previous occasions and so is known to many alumni; and Dr. Leopoldo T. Ruiz, newly elected president of Silliman University in the Philippines. Mr. Grant was on campus for two days and spoke at chapel, classes, and evening meetings, giving students, faculty, and townspeople a fine opportunity for a broad picture of the world situation. The East Tennessee Section of the American Chemical Society held a dinner meeting at the College with Dr. F. W. Jensen, head of the department of chemistry at Texas A & M, as the speaker, and the Blount County Teachers Association held their annual banquet at the College.

DEBATE

At the South Atlantic Forensic Tournament, held at Hickory, North Carolina, early in March, Naomi Burgos won second place for her extemporaneous after-dinner speech and Jeannine Fiori won second place in women's oratory. Nineteen colleges and universities participated in the tournament.

During the first week in April four of Maryville's squad will compete in the Grand National Forensic Tournament, Fredericksburg, Virginia. In the second week in April four other members of the squad will compete in the Pi Kappa Delta Tournament at Kalamazoo, Michigan.

ATHLETICS

The football season was very encouraging after the two preceding bad seasons. The team won four, lost four, and tied one. The scores are given below.

Maryville 39	---	Hiwassee	0
Maryville 15	---	Jacksonville (Ala.) Teachers	6
Maryville 0	---	Centre	20
Maryville 13	---	East Tennessee State	33
Maryville 13	---	Emory and Henry	34
Maryville 0	---	Carson-Newman	20
Maryville 0	---	Georgetown (Ky.)	0
Maryville 21	---	Carson-Newman	7
Maryville 20	---	Tennessee Wesleyan	12

The cross country team won six meets, lost two, and was the winner of the first annual invitational meet, at Dayton, Tennessee, for which a suitably inscribed cup was presented.

The basketball team won seven and lost fourteen games. An encouraging sign for the future is that the "B" (freshman) team won twelve and lost three.

The wrestling squad won six matches, lost three, and tied one. They tied for fourth place in the Southeastern Invitational Tournament, held this year in Nashville.

Tennis and baseball are getting under way as this is written. The baseball team has eighteen games scheduled and the tennis team thirteen matches.

BARNWARMING

Barnwarming, held each year on Thanksgiving evening, was one of the big events of the fall semester. As usual, many students spent a great deal of time and work preparing it, and the results were very entertaining. The scene of the musical show was centered around Danny's newstand on the street of a big city and the plot involved twin sisters and mistaken identity.

Betty Hammers, of Stewartstown, Pennsylvania, reigned as Queen and Bob Mizelle, of Arlington, New Jersey, was King.

The bleachers in the gym were full; the business manager reported over eight hundred tickets sold. The money raised was divided among four recent graduates now serving in the mission field, two in this country and two abroad. Carolyn Miller, '52, teaching in Assuit, Egypt, requested that books suitable for elementary school children be sent her; William Starr, '51, teaching in Woodstock School, Mussoorie, India, used the money to help with the education of a boy whose parents are in Communist China; Mary Kennedy, '51, at Haines House, Haines, Alaska, used the money to have a wood saw repaired; Janet Kihlgren, '52, working with Spanish-American children in Dixon, New Mexico, used her share to aid in the construction of a community recreation center.

COLLEGE BROADCASTS

Through the courtesy and facilities of WGAP, the Maryville-Alcoa radio station, the College is producing several regular radio programs. The Music Hall of the Fine Arts Center has a well equipped control room either for "live" broadcasts by a special wire to WGAP or for tape-recording of broadcasts. Mr. Curtis Hughes, of the music faculty, is now in charge of radio activities, and is the announcer for most of them.

Each Saturday evening during the football season a fifteen-minute band program and pre-game pep rally was put on. Every other Sunday afternoon at four o'clock Mr. Hughes broadcasts an organ program. And the weekly Y program, which is the oldest of the College broadcasts, continues.

A regular faculty program is a new feature this semester. Each Monday evening at eight o'clock a thirty-minute talk by a faculty member is broadcast. Each participant chooses some topic, usually related to his own teaching field, which will have popular interest.

Some of the subjects and speakers have been "The Pennsylvania Dutch" by Mr. Reber, "A Phase of French Geography" by Miss Wilkinson, "Manana is Fiesta Day in Mexico" by Mr. Schwam, "White Spirituals" by Miss Horne, a forum on modern art led by Mr. Beard, "Starvation in the Midst of Plenty" by Miss Meiselwitz, "The Great Book Series" by Dean Hunter, "The Psychology of the Child" by Dr. Briggs. Other speakers include Mrs. Kramer, Professor Walker, Dr. Griffiths, Miss Martin, Miss Johnson, and Miss Craven.

THE CLASS OF 1952 GIFT

A commercial-size deep fat fryer, costing approximately $375, has been installed in the Pearsons Hall kitchen. It is the first part of the 1952 senior class gift. Payments on pledges and unpledged gifts continue to come in and it is anticipated that the rest of the class gift will be used toward the purchase of new stoves.

The addition of the new fryer necessitated some rewiring in the kitchen and so it was not installed until the Christmas vacation. But it is in frequent use now and very much appreciated, both by those who cook and those who eat.

THE 1952 HOMECOMING AND FOUNDERS DAY

Dr. Queener and Dean Hunter, of the Faculty, with Dr. Vale and Dr. Duff, of the Directors, at the informal reception for the Directors.

Homecoming on November 1 had good weather, a good crowd, and a good game. For the first time in several years it didn't rain; more than 450 alumni and their families attended the barbecue. The game that night ended in a scoreless tie, but it was against a strong team from Georgetown College, Kentucky, which by the records was due to win, so the result was considered a "moral victory." LaDonna Baylor, a senior from Sturgis, Michigan, was crowned as Homecoming Queen by Alumni President Carl Storey. The choir's very colorful float won first prize in the parade through town in the afternoon. An innovation this year was an informal dance held in the Alumni Gymnasium immediately after the game. It gave an opportunity for students and alumni to see each other and to visit with old friends.

At the annual Founders Day service that morning, Rev. Dr. Roy Ewing Vale, of Indianapolis, a Director of the College, spoke on "Keeping Your Chapel." A number of the Directors were present for the service because their annual Fall Meeting was held that week end, instead of at the usual date late in November. They had met all the preceding day, had attended a faculty music recital and an informal reception Friday evening, and had met again Saturday morning for breakfast before the Founders Day service. When Dr. Vale was invited to speak on the Chapel, it was expected that ground would be broken on Founders Day. That proved to be impossible because architects' drawings could not be completed, but the theme was kept as suitably anticipating the construction which actually began two months later.

* * * * *

The 1953 Homecoming will be on Saturday, October 24, a week earlier than usual because of Coach's football schedule. The game will be against Newberry College of South Carolina. We realize the April issue of the Bulletin is too far ahead to make plans but the October issue is not far enough ahead, so why not mark October 24 on your calendar right now—before this issue gets lost among your magazines.

* * * *

You can still define a college or a university as Mark Hopkins on one end of a log and a student on the other, but the point of that aphorism is that both have to be good. I do not believe that Washington College or any other small college can compete with the big universities in making specialists or run-of-the-mine products. I do believe that with excellence it can compete in the production of enlightened minds and character.

I believe that it is the small college in this country, the college which puts emphasis on the humanities, that is peculiarly adapted to send forth thoughtful men and women—people who have caught the fire of great thoughts and great men, who know something of our culture and history, who can exchange views in tolerance with others, and above all, who have high ethical standards.

Such, I believe, is the challenge to, and the opportunity of, the small college.—John J. McCoy, Recently U. S. High Commissioner for Germany, in the Association of American Colleges Bulletin.
